

A SUPERPOWER OF SPIRIT

PULSE OF SPIRIT
MARCH 8, 2022

DAVID KARCHERE is a speaker and workshop leader who assists people to renew their Primal Spirituality—an experience that virtually all human beings know at birth, and that ideally grows as they mature.

PATRICIA GURSU:

On this blessed day, in this sacred hour, I call to the hearts and minds of all the conscious Beings on earth. Hear the great call, the longing to come forth and be your strong, radiant selves. Stand in your glory, to be the banners of your heavenly Father and Mother.

We send our blessings to the people of Ukraine and those who are providing prayer and vibrational surround, as well as humanitarian aid. We give thanks to those countries who have opened their borders to welcome those fleeing the war, and to people who have come to Poland from other countries to provide rides to those countries so that Ukrainian people may have a safe place to rest their heads. Bless the men who have stayed to defend their country and the women and children who have had to say goodbye to their husbands and brothers and fathers. We surround them in love and say to them, “Unconquerable life prevails. We are with you.”

The situation has provided another opportunity to call forth the compassionate, loving, divine heart of those in the world, to see the darkness that has been lurking in the corners, and to rise, come forth, stand up and say, “Thus far and no further.” We say that not only to those in the world that would say otherwise but to ourselves as well, letting purification and revelation come here first so that we are not part of the problem—we are part of the solution.

The spirit of the living God is being revealed through man in myriad ways. May it continue and let the blinders of human nature be ripped off, so that all may see that we are brothers and sisters. There is no place for conquest and greed. It is done. Let the purification that has begun burn brightly and consume all that divides us, so that only global community and oneness are known.

We thank You and stand with You, O divine Father and Mother, to bring the kingdom of love, peace, and oneness into the earth. So be it. Aum-en.

HOWARD GOODMAN:

This is the true voice of the Mother. That voice resonates with the highest vibration of the One She loves as She provides a womb space for conception.

This voice is unequivocal in its character and nature, for its love is unconditional. The womb space of the Great Mother must be kept clear of any toxicity that would come into that space. There is a means in the design of Creation for that toxicity to be dealt with in a way that is lovingly accurate to the needs of the matrix of Mother God. She carries the spiritual DNA that brings new life, conceived by this eternal tryst, the joined love of Father and Mother God. What is now being born brings new potential into a field that contains what is broken in human culture.

JANE ANETRINI:

This quote is from Dr. Clarissa Pinkola Estés' article "We Were Made for These Times":

In my uttermost bones I know something, as do you. It is that there can be no despair when you remember why you came to Earth, who you serve, and who sent you here. The good words we say and the good deeds we do are not ours. They are the words and deeds of the One who brought us here. In that spirit, I hope you will write this on your wall: When a great ship is in harbor and moored, it is safe, there can be no doubt. But that is not what great ships are built for.

This understanding of ourselves and other people is the basis for creating a field of compassion—we are all invited to be the powerful Beings we are. Granted, the situations we see on the news are horrific. And we know that there is more than one side to every story, so what we are seeing is partial. But even without knowing all the facts, I know what I feel. There was a photo in The Denver Post of a Russian soldier, covered with snow, lying on the ground in front of a demolished building. I looked at it and thought, That is someone's son. That is someone's brother and possibly someone's father. For what? For what was his life given?

So I invite us to know what we are given to—life and more life. We are given to standing in a field of compassion where the truth prevails. Thus far and no further.

We are all invited to play our part in bringing the authority of the living God through human experience.

DAVID KARCHERE:

It would be hard not to be aware of what is happening in Ukraine and the impact it is having around the world. It is monumental in the human experience for all kinds of reasons. But honestly, we all know that this is not the first time such a thing has happened. It is not the only problem on earth or the only place where there is separation among people. It is not the only experience of aggression that the human race has ever had. And yet here it is: this is the one that has presented itself to us in this day.

Being Emissaries of Divine Light, we are not turning away, we are not pretending it is not happening, we are not going on about our business in the usual way. We are here for this, seeing the present circumstance as an opportunity to address what splits us apart as human beings and offer what brings us together.

And what would that be? What does bring us together? And why do the people and nations of the world still find themselves divided?

We find ourselves divided as a human family because what unites us is at a higher level of experience than what separates us. And for the most part, human beings do not access that higher level of experience. There is a vibrational reference point present within the hearts and minds of all people. It is the feeling memory of the most elevated experience you have ever had in your life—the noblest person you have ever met, and the greatest realization that has ever come to your heart and mind. It was on a different day for each of us, yet it is there for all people.

That feeling memory is individual, and yet it is present in common for all within the body of humankind. There is that highest tone, that highest love, that highest reality, and that has the potential of uniting us.

When we access it, we see from that perspective. We gain super vision. We become an emissary of that light, that love, bringing it to the world. This is not the same as being an emissary of our culture, nation, family, community, organization, religion, or spiritual practice. Throughout history, there have been many attempts to bring what has been thought of as this unifying element to the world, sometimes called God. But it is almost always somebody's God—the Christian's God, the Muslim's God, the Jewish God. Or it is the values of someone's philosophy. When will we as human beings realize that "my God" does not unite anything, as long as it is just my God? So much violence and aggression have been carried out on behalf of "my God."

The only reality that unifies is the highest reality that is beyond my culture and personality. It is beyond my individuality of any kind. Even the highest individuality that I know is not capable of uniting the world. There is a reality that transcends me as an individual and transcends you. And only as we surrender to that, only as we hear the voice of that highest reality and attune to it, do we truly bring the unifying factor into the world, the only factor capable of bringing all of us together.

Embracing that reality, we embrace our superpower. Volodymyr Zelenskyy, president of Ukraine, said this to his people this morning: "We have become a superpower of spirit." He said that Ukraine united millions of people who have become one.

I acknowledge and honor President Zelenskyy and his heroic leadership. I acknowledge and honor the courage, fortitude, and love of the Ukrainian people.

We have become a superpower of spirit. This is exactly what needs to happen for us all. It is exactly what is happening for Emissaries of Divine Light.

There is so much disbelief in the power of spirit. People think of it as irrelevant. They have faith in the supposed supremacy of worldly power. Military power, financial and economic power, political power, and media power are all thought to dominate. The supreme power and potential of the human spirit are thought to be as nothing. And yet all that is happening in the human world is happening through a distorted use of spiritual power. The power of fear, the power of threats, the power of jealousy and greed working through the human heart, is governing human experience. It is not just money, and it is not just guns. It is fear of guns, greed for money, and fear of not having enough. It is hatred and disregard for others. What is governing our world now is transpiring through our spiritual nature. It is just that people are imposing a domination of the spirit in an aggressive, personal way for personal gain. It is distorted spiritual power working through human hearts.

We are here to bring the supreme power of the highest reality of spirit—to let it reverberate in our own human heart, which is the only way it becomes operative in the human experience. And as it does, it resonates through us in the world in which we live.

You might know the term asymmetrical warfare, usually applied to an inferior insurgence or resistance force that utilizes some kind of guerrilla tactics. The word asymmetrical simply refers to two opposing sides that are not the same.

We are engaged in a different kind of asymmetrical opposition. In the face of a world with conventional influence that is vastly superior to our own, we refuse to fight. We know that behind political parties, countries and corporations, and behind the tanks and bombs, there is a distorted spiritual government. Thus far, that spiritual government has not brought the unifying element to humankind. Even the best of it has left us divided. And at its worst, it is full of threats, intimidation, and invasiveness.

We are bringing an asymmetrical power into the world, the supreme power of the Creator—the power of the highest love—into the vibrational space of humankind. We bring the ordering power of love, which is higher and greater than any one of us but is at the very heart of all of us. It is the most real thing about us. It is who and what we are as the human race, not something separate from us. We know ourselves as who we are when we acknowledge and welcome that highest reality.

In the Book of Revelation, John says this:

And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done. (Revelation 16:17)

It is done. The seventh angel pours out his vial, the spiritual essence of the highest love known to humankind, into the field of compassion that we share. And therefore, that vial of the highest love and its contents are now in the world. We extend the invitation: Join this field of compassion. Join this matrix of the Great Mother. And in this field, welcome the highest love. In truth, be an Emissary of Divine Light.

Like many of you, I commit my life to activate this field with the vial of the seventh angel. I commit myself to let that vial be poured out into my human spirit. Altogether, we shine our light, and we raise our voices.

In another place in Revelation, it is said:

But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished.... (Revelation 10:7)

This is that day, and it is for this that we raise our voices so that the voice of the seventh angel may be heard through us—the seventh wave, the greatest love, so that the mystery of what transcends us as an individual is known on earth. Join us as Emissaries of Divine Light. Raise your voice.

This is our asymmetrical opposition as we bring an overwhelmingly superior spiritual power to the world.

Let this field of consciousness we share be a field of compassion. Let us know the highest love that holds us all. Let the vial of the seventh angel be poured out.

Let us be a superpower of spirit.
