

THE PULSE OF SPIRIT

EMISSARIES
OF DIVINE LIGHT

THIS GOLDEN, SHINING MOMENT

8 MARCH 2010

To you who read these words, wherever you may be around the world: You may have just subscribed to this electronic mailing list, or you may have been receiving the regular pulse of spirit we have been offering for decades. You may have been deeply committed to Emissaries of Divine Light or you may have felt distant from us and our work. Whatever the past has been, I offer these words to you, and pray that you hear and understand the spirit of them.

Together, we have this golden, shining moment in time to bring a shift in the outworking human destiny. Despite whatever sense of disillusionment may have been present for you, despite whatever failures you may believe to have been present in your own life or in our collective endeavors, this opportunity is present with us now. Knowing that consciousness is the pivotal factor for humanity and for our beloved Planet Earth, we may bring the highest reality of which we are aware to our world.

What must we do to let this happen? Most essentially, we must simply say that it shall be so. Let the highest reality come through my consciousness and yours, and let it be extended to the world. Let that reality come through our collective consciousness. With that willingness and commitment in the living of our lives, IT SHALL BE SO.

Having made this declaration, these steps are open to us:

- A full opening of heart and mind to the One Spirit
- A joining together in passion for our destiny to bring the transforming power of the One Spirit to the world
- Initiation of others into a knowing of the highest reality available to them

How do I know that what I speak is true? I speak from the great legacy of all the men and women who have walked this planet, bringing the spiritual victory which has brought us to this opportunity. They have done their work so that we may do ours. I speak for many around the world who hold a creative field of consciousness through which the One Spirit has a gateway into this world. I speak from the highest reality I know and serve. Now is a critical time for Planet Earth. I do not know how long this moment will last. Let us rise to answer the opportunity before us.

I would love to hear from you. Share, if you will, how you receive these words, and what action you might like to take, in thought and feeling and in the world, having heard them. The question in my heart is this: "What can we do to answer the call of this day?" And what will we do? The easiest way to be in touch is by e-mail. You may contact me at dkarchere@emnet.org. I would also welcome hearing from you by phone at 970.480.7792 (a United States phone number). I encourage you to share these words with any who you believe may be open to them.

May we know and share the blessing of the Most High.
